

violence

noun | vi-ol-ence | \ˈvi-lən(t)s, ˈvi-ə-l a : the use of physical force so to injure, abuse, damage, destroy

b : an instance of violent treatment or procedure

“we need feminism because a man in a room full of women is ecstatic, and a woman in a room full of men is ecstatic.”

feminist.

a person who believes in the social, political, and economic equality of the sexes.

RESPECT HER LIMITS